H7b1 Opens Regional Service Centre in Budapest, Hungary

European Litigation Technology Service Pioneer H7b1 opens regional technology service centre in Budapest, to cover litigation and forensic technology operations in Hungary and South-East Europe

BUDAPEST, Hungary (31 December 2009) – H7b1 (www.h7b1.com), the Swiss firm recognised as a pioneer of litigation technology services in Continental Europe, announces today that it has established a new full-service Operation Centre in Budapest, backed by an H7b1 Hungarian subsidiary, “H7b1 Legal Technology Services Kft”.

Located on both banks of the Danube River, Budapest is the political, cultural and business capital of Hungary, a European Union member state. Budapest is a major European centre and also regarded as one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

The new Operation Centre is located in the heart of the City’s business sector, Pest’s Belváros District V, and is capable of providing the full range of H7b1 litigation and forensic technology services throughout Hungary, as well as Slovakia, Romania, Bulgaria and the Balkans.

Closer and Stronger Presence in South-East Europe

“By creating this South-East European Centre in Budapest after so many years of operations in the region, we show our commitment to develop and execute more timely and cost effective solutions for our customers established in this new European frontier,” stated Rafik E. Abboud, H7b1 Chief Executive Officer.
